

Creating a Fall Giving Plan

Money:

Sit down with your budget and decide how much you can give, and then divide it into the categories of giving. Stick with this amount, it is so much more fun to give when you are not overextended.

Time:

Take a realistic look at your calendar and look at how much time you will have to give your time and talents during the Fall season. And how much time you will have to shop, create, volunteer, etc. Then, block this time out on your calendar so that it stays reserved for your giving plans.

Talents:

Take inventory of the ways that you can make a difference in the world this Fall, and how you can give to those in need using the talents that you already hold.

Ideas:

Grab a coffee or Pumpkin Spice Latte, sit back, take a breath, and then get creative. Write out ideas on how you can give this holiday season, schedule it into your budget and calendar and have an awesome Fall Season!
